

learning community charter school

PTO Meeting
December 10, 2020

Cristhel Martinez-Suarez: PTO Chairperson
Erin Burton, Secretary
Carolina DeBrigard, PTO Treasurer
Joanna Garnett Raepold, Head Class Rep
Doreen Demyen, Head of Events

- Thank you- Ms. Jaffrey/ Mr. Brown for a successful ZOOM Thanksgiving Sing-A-Long.
- Class Rep Update: Thank you for organizing the Holiday Collection, the deadline is Friday but might be extended to Tuesday, THANK YOU TO ALL THE PARENTS FOR YOUR SUPPORT.
- Please Support LCCS's first Virtual Musical production of Aladdin Jr, due out in February, you can order much needed items via amazon by Dec. 20. The link to the wishlist is in the Friday Flyer.

SCHOOL UPDATE and DATES to REMEMBER: Colin Hogan, Head of School

- December 12 & 14- Virtual Open House
- December 16- K-5 Winter Concert 6:30-7:30pm
- December 17- Board of Trustees Meeting, teachers will be presenting on their experiences with remote learning. There will also be a synthesis of the survey that has gone out this week.
- December 18 - Independence Circle Meeting, and will announce the teacher of the year. It will also include preK students this time and an email will go out about it.
- December 23-Half Day
- December 24- No School Winter Break
- NEXT PTO Meeting- January 7th

HOT TOPIC: ONLINE SAFETY

A special presentation by Willy Caicedo, a detective with the Hudson County Prosecutor's Office on the dangers and impact of cyberbullying, social media and apps that facilitate the targeting and victimization of Youth.

This presentation was recorded and it's encouraged at parents watch the recording and talk about these topics with their 5-8th graders this weekend. The HCPO will be doing a student seminar on Dec. 11 for all 5-8th graders.

For questions you can reach out to Sgt. Willy Caicedo 201-915-1345 or WCAICEDO@HCPO.ORG

WISHING YOU HEALTH, JOY, PEACE & PROSPERITY IN THE NEW YEAR